

Professional Manuscript Critique by Diane M. Campbell

Get a thorough and detailed review of the beginning segment of your manuscript. All genres accepted. You'll receive comments and suggestions pointing out the strengths in your work as well as notes and explanations regarding areas that need attention. You'll also have an opportunity to schedule a post-conference 20-minute Zoom consultation with Diane, as a follow-up discussion of your manuscript, if you wish.

Fee: $25 for manuscript critique of submissions up to 3,000 words plus a back cover book blurb (up to 250 words). All fees will go to Write in the Springs.

This offer is open only to registered conference attendees. Limited slots available. You can prepay together with your conference registration on the website, in slot or add to your registration after the fact by contacting the conference registrar at: conference@acfwcoloradospings.com

Manuscripts must be submitted by February 21, 2022.
Completed critiques will be emailed before the conference begins.

Diane M. Campbell has been writing professionally for over 30 years, though her attention turned to fiction only after she retired from her marketing career in 2012. She is an experienced ACFW contest judge, Genesis award-winning author, and Coordinator of ACFW Colorado Springs' Email Critique Exchange. She currently serves as Treasurer of ACFW Colorado Springs.
